

TUTORS

AND

LECTURERS:

BENJAMIN COPE is acting director of the EHU Laboratory of Critical Urbanism. He teaches Courses on Localised Cultural Industries, Critical Cartography and Gender and Space at EHU.

DALIA ČIUPAILAITĖ is an urban sociologist working at Vilnius University. She is interested in public spaces, architecture and visual research.

BOGDAN KAPATSILA has experience in the fields of graphic, interior design and university teaching. Besides his own practice, in 2014 he worked as a guest architect/designer at RestoCamp in Ivano-Frankivsk and did internships at several Ukrainian offices. Since 2015, he has become a member of CANactions School for Urban Studies in Kyiv, firstly as a student and later as a facilitator and coordinator of the educational process.

MIODRAG KUČ is an interdisciplinary artist and urban theorist trained as an architect / urban planner in various cultural settings. His work explores the role of ephemeral structures in uncertain urban conditions and the spatial appropriations of marginal social groups.

SIARHEI LIUBIMAU holds a PhD in sociology (2010, Polish Academy of Science) and works at the EHU Department of Media. He researches, writes and thinks about various effects of relations between state border regimes, space uses and meaning making.

GINTARĖ NORKŪNAITĖ is an urban designer and planner, graduated from the Delft University of Technology. In her MSc research, she focused on the urban-technological phenomenon of "atomgrads" and the spatial transformations influenced by the decommissioning process.

INDRĖ RUSECKAITĖ is an architect, lecturer and vice dean for International Relations at the Faculty of Architecture, Vilnius Gediminas Technical University; curator at the Architecture [excursion] Fund, guiding excursions around modernist heritage.

OLGA SASUNKEVICH is a lecturer in the Department of Media and executive co-director of the Center for Gender Studies at the European Humanities University, Vilnius, Lithuania. She obtained her doctoral degree in East European History from Greifswald University, Germany in 2014. She is the author of Informal Trade, Gender, and the Border Experience: From Political Borders to Social Boundaries (Ashgate 2015).

ANDREI STSIAPANAU is a researcher and associate professor at the European Humanities University. His main research interests lie in the field of the comparative studies of different technopolitical regimes in Russia, Belarus and Lithuania with regard to projects of nuclear power plant construction.
